

Craig Carroll

Classical guitarist

Dear Presenter,

Craig Carroll is a versatile and delightful performer, who is professional and easy to work with. His adaptability without “over the top” costs and his ability to perform to audiences of up to 1000 seats or more without amplification make him an organizers dream. All he needs is a chair and an audience!

Craig enjoys sharing his love for music with the community and makes himself available for activities such as pre-concert talks, school performances, residencies, and master-classes. He is always delighted to help provide publicity for performances by offering media interviews with radio, TV and newspaper.

Craig’s extensive repertoire allows him to appeal to a wide audience. His repertoire ranges from the renaissance forward performing masterworks by the great artists of their eras displaying his versatility and mastery of his art.

Craig’s concert schedule is always booked 6 months to a year in advance. Please make your requests early and check with Honeycutt Associates to see when he will be in your area. Committing early ensures his availability and allows you to more easily publicize your event and to make the most of Craig.

Don’t miss out on an amazing performance!
