

Craig Carroll has been enchanting, amazing, mesmerizing and delighting audiences for 20 years. First as a prodigal talent giving his first public recital at the age of 18 debuting with works by Handel and Bach and Schubert after only one year of study. Then as a consummately skilled and dedicated professional he has amazed and delighted audiences for the last 20 years.

Mr. Carroll's drive and passion for music and the guitar led him to great lengths in his studies. He started his studies and explorations in music at the age of 17 under the great guitarist and protégé of both Segovia and Abel Carlevaro, Dr. Ben Bolt. During that time he also constantly sought new avenues of information performing for the great masters in over 50 master classes and studying in 250 total master classes.

An award winning player, he is listed in the Who's Who of the international directory of music and musicians, and is a 2003 showcase artist for the P.A.E. and 2004 showcase artist for the Tennessee Arts Market.
